VOL. LXXXIII. NUMBER 32

Robert Mitchell, right, 113 Oakwood Drive, Antioch, shows Ralph and Mary Dowell, Rte. 3, Box 732, Antioch, announcement of the Bible conference of Jehovah's Witnesses, the young people will attend Feb. 14-16 at Steinmetz H. School, Chicago.

Jehovah's Witnesses To Hold Three-Day Religious Assembly

The three-day religious assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses, scheduled for Steinmetz High School, 3030 N. Mohile, Chicago, Feb. 14-16, will draw a large portion of its attendance from among the young adult group.

Antioch's Jehovah's Witnesses who will meet with 14 other groups and many other young people at the Christian assembly will be Robert J. Mitchell, 18, 113 Oakwood Drive, Antioch, and Ralph, 13, and Mary Dowell, 15, R. R. 3, Box 732, Antioch.

The assembly program will be directed not only to adults, but young people also. The entire Friday evening format will involve them.

The challenge of this restless and turbulent age to the secular and spiritual lives of the young will be demonstrated and portrayed in a series of skits and demonstrations.

Robert Mitchell, speaking for his age group in the congregation, said that young people will be encouraged to share in the Christian witness.

Referring to the effect that such Christian involvement has upon youth protests, he represented his age group, saying, "Protest by youth results from more than their energy and dissatisfaction with things in general.

"Perhaps, more important is the fact that there is no comparable way within most church programs for youths to make energetic and meaningful moral contributions."

Carlson Receives Citation

James Carlson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carlson, of 533 Winsor Drive, Antioch, has been awarded an honorary citation to Valparaiso University.

Carlson will be enrolled in the College of Engineering. A graduate of Antioch high school, Carlson was an officer in the following organizations:

Vice president of the freshman class, served on the executive board in freshman, junior and senior years, elected to National Honor Society in junior and senior years, named All Conference and All County on varsity football team.

Antioch Students Host AFS

On Wednesday, Feb. 5 there will be an A. F. S. Assembly to afford the Antioch High School students and faculty an opportunity to hear from some of the American Field Service foreign students living with host families in neighboring towns.

Invitations have been extended to Mundelein's Philippine student, Libertyville's two students from Brazil and Argentina, Waukegan's two students from Ecuador and New Zealand, the Uruguay student in Zion, Lake Zurich's student from Uganda, Grayslake's representative from Japan and McHenry's A.F.S. student from Norway.

These fine young ambassadors from other lands will be luncheon guests of the Antioch High School and will tour the school prior to the A.F.S. Assembly.

Those students who can remain for the entire day will be featured guests at the P.T.A. meeting, Wednesday, Feb. 5 at 8 p.m.

Antioch High School has not had a foreign exchange student for two years but have every reason to look forward to a student in the 1969-70 school year, since three fine host families are applying this year.

The A.F.S. Assembly will revitalize interest and pride in having an A.F.S. foreign exchange student at Antioch High School.

Evening School In Black

The Antioch High School District has finished an adult evening school semester "in the black" for the first time.

The reason for the success of the program is that Antioch has joined with Grant, Grayslake, and Round Lake to present a combined program.

Previously each school had operated on its own, but last semester, under the cooperative program, the four were able to offer 30 classes and had 325 pupils.

The second semester finds that enrollment has dropped to 200 adults with only 17 courses taught, but the system will still not lose money.

Courses were offered either at the school of the district where there are the most enrolled or at the school most convenient to the teacher.

Thieves Take Radio Equipment From Benes

Radio equipment was stolen last Thursday from one of the trucks of the Benes Construction Co., Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Road, Antioch Township.

Frank Benes reported that a radio head, speaker, antenna and lead wire were stolen.

The fire which followed the 1966 earthquake in San Francisco destroyed 28,000 buildings and did an estimated $350 million in damage.

Cunningham Has Slate; Toft To Reveal Program

Former Mayor Murrill Cunningham today announced that he has filed his slate and will file under the Progressive Party label.

At the same time Mayor Raymond Toft, who has filed a slate under the Peoples Party in the April 15 municipal election announced that he would reveal his program next week.

Cunningham, who said his slate has decided not to file under the Republican Party label, said his final slot on the trustee race will be filled by Arnold Weber, of 299 Maplewood Ave.

Weber, the son-in-law of incumbent treasurer Mrs. Martha Hunter is from Oakwood Knolls, a portion of the village that Cunningham has insisted should have representation on his slate.

Running with Cunningham and Weber will be Ernest Westlund for village clerk, Einar Petersen and Robert H. Bemis will round out the trustee candidates.

Toft, who is seeking a second term will have his incumbent trustees Verne L. Barnstable and Robert Willon along with Richard Daniels, running on his slate for the clerk's job is Marilyn Stenberg.

Dropped from the Toft slate is incumbent Trustee Arthur Meierdick who has declined to run and Village Clerk Clarence Shultis who is also retiring from office.

Toft told the Antioch News that he would announce his program next week.

"I have not had a chance to sit down with the slate at the present time," Toft said, "and we have several things to iron out as far as a program is concerned."

"You can be sure of one thing, however, we are not going to promise a lot of things that we cannot possibly do. We want to put forth a program that will bring progress to our community.

"But we are not going to say we can do something we know we cannot. We have to look over what we have to work with and then decide what we feel is best for the community."

Cunningham said he would confer with his co-runners and put forth a program in a short time. He also advised that it would not be one of promises that could not be fulfilled.

"We are calling it the Progressive Party for one reason," he said. "Because we intend to supply a progressive administration."

Meanwhile the lines are drawn for the Township Election on April 1.

No new slate or independents were filed by the deadline Monday.

So the two factions that will go to the voters will be the Taxpayers Independent Political Party which will oppose the incumbent township officers.

The incumbents include Clerk Lowell Van Patten, Jr., Assessor G. Dudley Kennedy and Auditors Harold Wilson, John Miller and Irving Carey.

On the new party ticket are George Jaros who will run for assessor, Richard Waters for clerk, and Tom Robinson, Frank Benes and Robert Schroeder for auditors.

An election is also rearing its head on another front. The Antioch High School Board of Education has two terms expiring—that of John Blackman and Robert Denman.

At the present time Denman has filed for another term, but it is not known whether Blackman will run. Also filing for the post is August G. Costoff.

Deadline for filing nominating petitions is Saturday, March 22.

Lions Honor 2 Firms

The Antioch Lions Club presented two plaques at its meeting Monday night in The Angels.

The plaques were presented to the Jim Beam Company, which recently purchased the Regal China Co. in Antioch, and the Expanda-Foam, Inc., of Antioch.

Accepting the plaque for the Jim Beam Co. was David Nissen, who is associated with the company and also one of the promoters of the Antioch Jubilee Bottle.

Accepting the plaque for Expanda-Foam, Inc., was Everett Oftedahl, president of the firm. The plaques were engraved with the following:

"In recognition for your outstanding community spirit by your generous contribution to the Antioch Lions Club Aqua Center. Your generosity will help promote a continued program of recreation in Antioch."

The plaques were presented by Ted Larson who was president when the pool was started and who is currently very active in its operation.

County Lawmakers Get Many Requests

Lake County state lawmakers were asked Friday to increase the powers of counties similar to those enjoyed by Cook; consider legislation which would allow counties to levy a wheel tax on motor vehicles; allow establishment of county toll-highway commissions; create laws to deal with junk cars; act favorably on a bill proposing a population vote for purposes of apportionment and retain the present township form of government.

These and many other matters were discussed during a "Legislative Conference" between members of the Lake County Board of Supervisors, elected county officials and department heads, and state legislators.

Five county members of the General Assembly attended, including senators Robert Coulson and Karl I. Berning; state representatives John Conolly, John Kleine and John Matijevich.

The conference was called by supervisor Robert Dickson of Wauconda, chairman of the County Board legislative committee.

One matter which was discussed at length was that of finding a way to relieve the tax burden on the elderly who must live on a fixed income. Supervisor Ronald R. Coles of Lake Villa said many people live on an income of $180 to $200 per month and still pay their real estate and personal property taxes.

Narcotics Charge Pending

An Antioch man was arrested Sunday for possession of narcotics in a raid led by Antioch Police Chief Jack Davis.

Taken into custody was Kim Randall, 21, of Rte. 3, Box 821, Antioch.

Davis said that Randall had in his possession at the time of the raid about $200 worth of marijuana, "and what the kids call acid and hash."

Davis said that the raid took place in a private home but he refused to say where. He also said that he had a search warrant in his possession at the time of the raid.

Davis said there were others present at the time of the raid but that Randall was the only one taken into custody.

Total snow for season—28.4"

During the summer and through the fall there was some heavy construction going on around us, but not too many paid much attention to it.

Mr. Muskrat was building his winter home, and as the saying goes, "The bigger his house, so will our winter be."

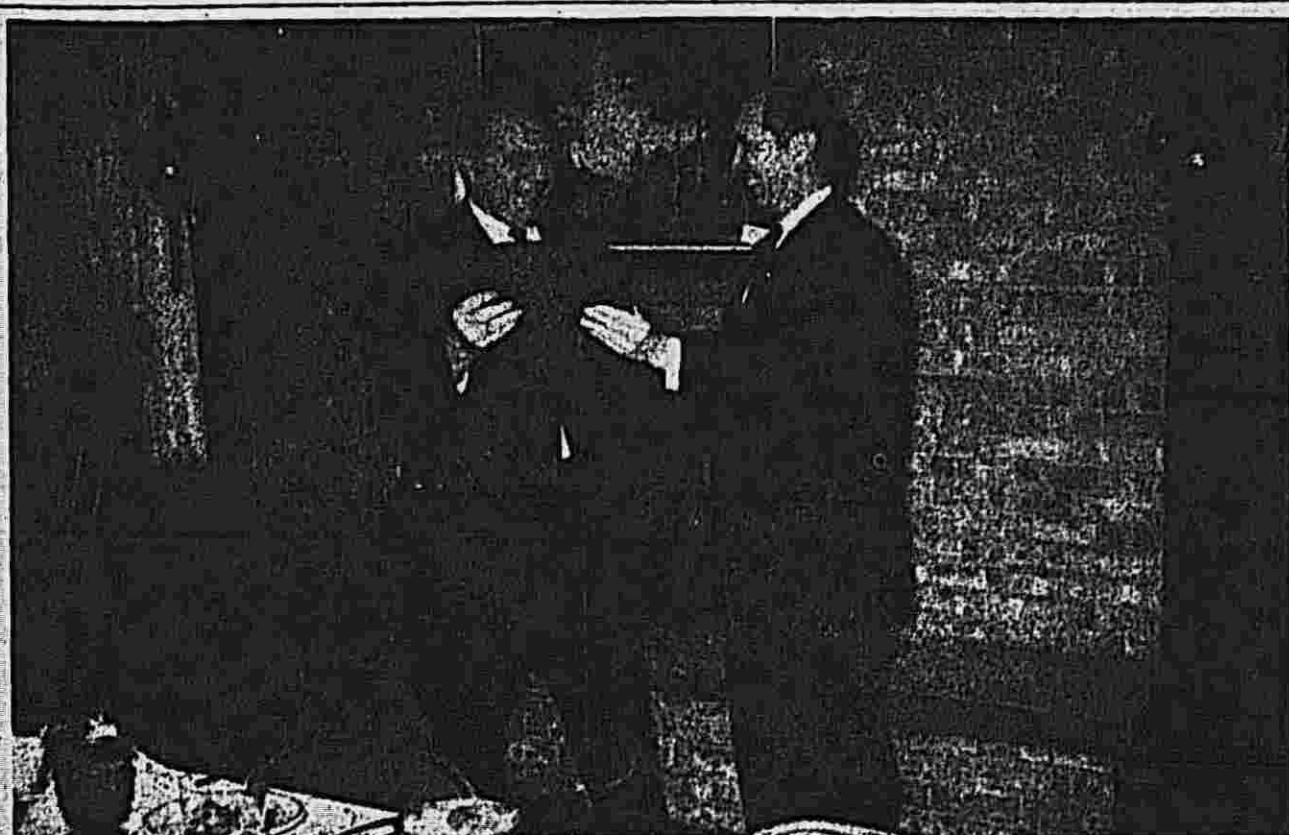

If you have a chance, take a look at his house now, he still has room before his roof is under ice and water, even on Depot Street!

P.S. Don't forget to feed the birds and speaking of birds, have you seen Chas. Halling's new Eagle?

Editor's Note: Depot Street is flooded and the new Eagle is a collectors item from Dave Nissen's Jim Beam bottles.

David Nissen, left, accepts a similar plaque from Larson on behalf of the Jim Beam Co. He is associated with the firm and one of the promoters of the Antioch Jubilee Bottle.

We Favor Bucher

We are somewhat amazed that the U.S. Navy is now considering a courtmartial for Commander Lloyd M. Bucher, captain of the Pueblo.

Cmdr. Bucher has been notified that anything he says may now be held against him in a courtmartial if one is ever sought.

We think that the U.S. Navy and maybe some other branches of the service ought to be on trial—instead of the skipper of the intelligence ship.

Where was the help he needed when the Communists took over his ship?

There was enough time to get air force planes to the scene before the ship was taken into the North Korean port.

It would seem to us that the United States Navy ought to be grateful to its commander for saving the lives of the personnel of the ship—rather than throwing them away in a futile attempt to resist an overwhelming force.

What was he supposed to hit them back with—his handkerchief.

There isn't enough armament on one of those intelligence ships—and we speak with knowledge because we have relatives on one just like the Pueblo—to stop a squad of men, let alone the number that confronted Bucher on that fateful day.

If anyone was derelict, we feel that it was the United States government for allowing such a thing to go on without retribution.

The regulation Bucher may be tried under reads:

"The commanding officer shall not permit his command to be searched by any person representing a foreign state nor permit any other personnel under his command to be removed from that command so long as he has the power to resist."

That looks pretty good on paper, in our opinion, but when an overwhelming force wants to look at your ship, you had better let them look.

Or else be dead.

It would seem to us that the U.S. Navy might try its top personnel for the crime of letting an unarmed—and we use the word advisedly—ship get into the position of having itself boarded.

We feel that Cmdr. Bucher did the only thing he could do under the circumstances.

The days when you charge into a superior force—sword in hand and die for dear old Siwash U.—is long past.

If Cmdr. Bucher is put before a courtmartial we hope that an enraged American citizenry will come to his rescue.

Navy regulations are nice. But there are over 80 men alive today because they were ignored.

Every Success

A town grows because there are people around that give of themselves to see that it does.

Typical of this was the installation last Saturday night of the new officers for the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber is one group that is dedicated to the progress of Antioch, wanting it to grow not only in size but in stature in the overall county community.

The new officers are those that we believe will add new incentive to the Chamber idea and bring about many changes—not for change sake but for progress.

The members of the Chamber, we believe, have drawn from their ranks a group of doers and not of watchers and we applaud their choice.

We think that the new officers will bring about a new growth in our town.

We wish them every success.

Cut Fatalities

We keep harping on the idea of safe driving and sometimes we believe that maybe we do it too much.

But we almost got through the frightful month of January without a traffic fatality—but

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClary

Among the happiest people in America today are former President and Lady Bird Johnson who vacated the White House last Monday after twenty-two years of public service in Washington, culminating with five years at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. Their sense of joy and relief was evidenced in their appearances and public expressions during these past few weeks.

In the opinion of this Member of Congress, Mrs. Johnson never appeared lovelier or more contented than when her husband was personally delivering his final State of the Union message to the Joint Session of the Congress. While it was the President's swan song as the nation's Chief Executive, it evidenced more satisfaction than nostalgia. Indeed, the President's voluntary retirement from public life appears to be coupled with a feeling of great personal accomplishment and general good will toward his countrymen and toward the world.

Another and a most memorable farewell event occurred recently when the President and Lady Bird Johnson met informally with Members of the House of Representatives in the Longworth Building on Capitol Hill. Both the President and Lady Bird were exuberant with joy as they spoke about this, Member's 12th District constituents—the Jerry Nugents of Waukegan—father and mother-in-law of Luci Johnson Nugent—joy at the thought of more time to be with children and grandchildren and for just being together, one with the other, after five hectic action-packed years in the White House.

As the President spoke extemporaneously to both Republican and Democratic Members of the U. S. House of Representatives, he voiced no resentment, no recrimination. He expressed only praise and gratitude for a Congress still tied inextricably to a myriad of new programs labeled by Lyndon Johnson himself as "The Great Society."

With uninhibited and unmistakable pride, and with only two weeks of his term remaining, the President prophesied that the Congress under his leadership would go down in history as "the Education Congress, the Conservation Congress, the Anti-Poverty Congress, and the Civil Rights Congress." He declared that those now serving in the Congress had accomplished more in these areas than any Congress in American history and that he was proud of these accomplishments. The President's voice rang with confidence and satisfaction that he had led the nation to a new pinnacle of greatness and was voluntarily retiring in glory and contentment.

The former President gave no hint of the continuing war in Vietnam nor the unprecedented wave of crime and civil unrest which has plagued the Johnson administration during the entire five years of his service. These are obvious disappointments.

In all fairness and candor it must be emphasized that no goal was more actively pursued by President Johnson than to restore peace with honor in Vietnam. It is clear that the troop buildup, the bombing initiative, the halting of bombing and all of the other moves and decisions—including the President's decision on March 31, 1968—to voluntarily retire from the Presidency were coupled with a fervent desire to produce peace in Vietnam.

History will judge Lyndon Baines Johnson in the light of his accomplishments and his failures. But as he and Lady Bird retire to their ranch in Johnson City, Texas, they seem only to be reflecting on the Johnson Administration's triumphs.

Insurance companies of all types paid nearly $708 million in premium taxes to 50 states.

not quite.

Last year in the county some 90 persons died on the highways.

Thus far this year we have had only three traffic fatalities as compared with six for the same period last year.

The way we figure it, if we can cut the ratio by a six to three count there will be a reduction of some 45 auto-deaths in Lake County.

Let's try.

Jehovah's Witnesses

When asked if this applied to the young people of Jehovah's Witnesses Robert said, "Bible principles set the standard for our behavior and attitude. If we violate these then our protests against society could turn into rebellion against God. Actually, our energy is directed into various activities that are connected with our ministerial work."

He added that most of the teenagers among Jehovah's Witnesses are enrolled in the public speaking course and also the ministerial training program offered locally. These same courses will be presented on an enlarged scale at the Steinmetz assembly.

Robert said in conclusion, "The purpose of the assembly is to help us teach the Bible to interested persons of any ethnic group or background in our respective communities. Our being young is not a deterrent to conducting home Bible studies with adults because they admire such work in view of the growing number of young persons forsaking the Bible and religion."

The three-day program begins at 6:45 p.m. Friday, Feb. 14, and continues through the weekend with daily sessions on varied topics.

Highlight of the conference will be a public discourse by Arden B. Stutler, district supervisor, Sunday, Feb. 16, at 3 p.m. on the subject "Law and Order—When and How?"

ple in this county are living between keeping their homes or losing them."

Sen. Berning, a former supervisor and chairman of the County Board, told the conference he is in complete sympathy but nothing can be legally done under the present Illinois Constitution. He indicated that a change may be made during the constitutional convention in this area.

Other subjects brought up at the session included: forest preserve land; election law reform; a universal fee system for all counties; proposal for new highway safety laws; changing the population ratio so Lake County would maintain the approximate size of its present Board; make sure the county would receive an equal amount of income should the personal property tax be abolished as a result of passage of a State income tax; and what could be done about the disparity in real estate tax between Cook and Lake counties.

Percy Backs Grants For Education

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R., Ill., joined in sponsoring a bill to promote new programs and provide grants for education in the social and behavioral sciences. The bill, co-sponsored by Sen. Fred Harris, D., Okla., would establish a National Foundation for the Social Sciences. The foundation would be similar in concept to the National Science Foundation, which was created by Congress after the Soviet Union's early achievements in space.

"In our race toward scientific superiority, we have shamefully neglected the needs of the social sciences," Percy said in a statement.

"Support of the physical sciences may get us up to the moon," he added, "but it won't help us understand the problems of our country, or of the people who live in it. We must do more to bring about the 'good earth' about which Astronauts Borman, Lovell and Anders spoke so eloquently."

The National Foundation for the Social Sciences would underwrite, fund and support research, education and training in the social sciences. It would include such areas as political science, economics, history, law and languages.

"In addition to funding education and research in the social sciences, the Foundation would initiate programs and recommend policies aimed at effectively developing our social science resources," Percy said, adding:

"If our race to achieve technical excellence outstrips our pace to better understand our society and ourselves, then we will suffer a great loss. I feel, therefore, that there is a real need to support and encourage the social sciences, and I hope early enactment of this bill will reasonably respond to that need."

Good Year For Dairy Farmers

A good year for farmers was foreseen by A. L. McWilliams, general manager of Pure Milk Association at the annual meeting of PMA district 6 at the VFW Hall in McHenry, Jan. 21.

McWilliams said that 1969 should bring improvement of milk prices to producers as a result of greater bargaining efforts by dairy farmer cooperatives, and several actions taken recently by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Officers elected to serve for the year ahead are: President, Ralph L. Nichols, Rt. 1, Hebron, Ill.; vice-president, Charles P. Wein-gart, McHenry; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ferol Tomlinson, McHenry; re-districting committee-man, Norman E. Heinrich, Crystal Lake; alternate re-districting committee-man, Douglas Shanks, Rt. 2, Mundelein; resolutions committee-man, Ferdinand F. Dahle, Rt. 1, Walworth, Wis.; alternate resolutions committee-man, Richard Beers, Perkins Rd., Harvard, and inter-cooperative relations committee-man, Ralph Nichols. Avery A. Vose, district director, Rt. 2, Antioch, was re-elected last year to a two-year term.

In his address before an audience of 200, PMA General Manager McWilliams said the recent actions taken by the former Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman to extend the dairy support price program through the marketing year beginning April 1 and to maintain Class I (bottled) milk order prices at current levels on 67 federal order markets through April 30, 1970, will help dairy farmers off to a good start in 1969.

McWilliams said producer milk prices improved in 1968 for several reasons. These included closer cooperation among producer cooperatives in marketing milk and bargaining for super-pool returns, the trend toward mergers of federal milk marketing orders, and the standby pool, which member organizations of Associated Dairy-men, Inc., set up to provide orderly marketing of milk in the midwest and southwest.

McWilliams stressed several points which dairy farmers must concentrate upon in 1969 as follows:

1. Congress must enact legislation to place permanent curbs on most dairy imports so that our own dairy products will not be pushed off the market. President Johnson's January 6 proclamation placing more dairy products under Section 22 import controls cannot be expected to stop permanently excessive quantities of dairy products being imported into this country.
2. The standby pool must be made a part of the marketing agreements act and should be administered by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
3. New advertising techniques must be considered to increase sales of milk and dairy products.
4. Farmers, themselves must work together to achieve mergers of dairy farmer cooperatives.
5. New milk pricing plans must be studied.

A plaque was presented by District President Ralph Nichols to Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Mathison of Hebron as the outstanding young couple of PMA district 6 in 1968.

A 35-year PMA membership pin was presented by Avery A. Vose, PMA president and district 6 director, to Raymond Olbrich, Rt. 1, Harvard. This recognition will also be given to Cornelius Callahan, Rt. 1, Harvard; Clinton E. Martin, Rt. 4, McHenry; and Leonard Snudden, Rt. 1, Hebron. Presented 25-year PMA membership pins were Milton Pfau, Rt. 1, Walworth, and Russel Ru-

Call Experts For Appliance Adjustments

Although there are many "do-it-yourself" projects that are fun and save money, the installation and adjustment of gas appliances are projects for the professionals.

According to Northern Illinois Gas Company appliance experts, a gas appliance will operate most efficiently if you call in an expert who is well acquainted with proper installation standards.

However, NIGas has a few "do-it-yourself" suggestions for continuous and satisfactory performance of gas appliances.

If a gas appliance is connected to a flue, be sure the flue is in good condition and working properly. A simple test will tell. After the appliance has been on about 15 minutes, hold a lighted match under the skirt of the draft hood. The match flame will be drawn toward the hood if the flue is clear. A blocked flue should be cleaned before it can cause trouble.

People need air—and so do home appliances. A dependable source of air is especially important for gas heating equipment that operates for long periods of time.

Remember that while natural gas is a versatile source of energy in the home, it works best when given specific assignments. Water heaters and most kitchen ranges are not intended for use as space heaters. Leave that job to equipment especially designed for heating.

Unlike the manufactured gas supplied years ago, natural gas is non-toxic. It contains no poisonous ingredients. However, any room should contain plenty of pure oxygen for breathing, so if you should smell an odor of gas in the home or apartment, open the windows. Then check to see if a burner valve is open or a pilot light is extinguished. If the trouble cannot be located, leave the windows open and call the local NIGas office.

Statistics indicate that natural gas causes fewer home accidents and fires than any other widely-used source of energy. This record can be improved further by keeping curtains, paper, dust mops and other combustible items away from burner surfaces.

Gas appliances are designed and manufactured to give safe, efficient, convenient and long-lasting operation, say the NIGas experts. And they will do just that with professional as well as "do-it-yourself" project care.

If you find a tick attached to you, do not try to remove it with your fingers—you will get only part of it. Apply alcohol or the hot end of a match or cigarette to the tick and it will be forced to free itself.

The Winter months are the worst for fire losses. Although other factors are involved, this is mainly the result of heating hazards.

Realtors To Have First Computer

The Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors will be first in the State of Illinois to offer a complete computerized listing service to the public through Realtor Corporation of Detroit, a subsidiary of Reeves Broadcasting Corporation of New York.

This service will officially be "on line" Feb. 3rd and will be available throughout Lake County area which is covered by the jurisdiction of this Board and its Multiple Listing Service.

Multiple Listing Realtors are equipping their offices and their sales people with electronic instruments with which they can communicate almost instantly with a central computer that will give information on properties for sale in this area that will meet with a particular buyer's needs.

Likewise the Realtors will be able to help property owners know exactly what the current market is at all time in order to price their property at a fair market level. Marketing a local property becomes nationwide with this service.

The technical work precedent to the Lake County Realtors starting its computer service to residents in this area is to be completed by Feb. 3rd as well as the training of individual offices on the use of the equipment.

Motor Club Backs Road Program

A renewed effort to pass a resolution calling for a constitutional amendment to halt diversion of motorists' tax money and promotion of a major new highway construction bill highlight the 1969 Illinois legislative program of the Chicago Motor Club-AAA, according to Gerald W. Cavanagh, motor club president.

"In 1967," he said, "the club proposed passage of anti-diversion resolutions calling for a constitutional amendment that would prohibit the diversion of highway user taxes to non-highway purposes. And although the anti-diversion proposal was not adopted in 1967, the resolution fell short by only 10 votes in the Illinois House of Representatives."

Cavanagh pointed out that anti-diversion amendments have been enacted in 28 states. "But," he have been installed in the Central Multiple Listing Office at 502 East Hawley Street, Mundelein, Illinois. Realtors Computer Service is affiliated with the National Association of Real Estate Boards and the organization makes this service available nationwide through the medium of local Boards.

Driving Skills Needed

Lake County motorists were urged today by Jerry Klebe, Executive Director of the Lake County Safety Commission to sharpen their winter driving skills for the snowfalls still to come.

"Many drivers tend to slack off on their driving skills toward the end of a long winter and can get caught unprepared in severe driving conditions," Klebe said.

Proceeds of a proposed gasoline tax of one cent per gallon and a diesel fuel tax of two cents per gallon would be available to pay off the bond issue, Cavanagh said.

Other Chicago Motor Club 1969 legislative proposals are:—An "implied consent" bill to aid enforcement of "driving while drunk" laws while protecting innocent motorists from arbitrary abuses.

—A workable compulsory vehicle inspection law.

—Amendment of present law, which prohibits the driver of one vehicle from pushing a stalled car except in extreme emergency, to permit pushing for a reasonable distance.

Driving Skills Needed

Lake County motorists were urged today by Jerry Klebe, Executive Director of the Lake County Safety Commission to sharpen their winter driving skills for the snowfalls still to come.

"Many drivers tend to slack off on their driving skills toward the end of a long winter and can get caught unprepared in severe driving conditions," Klebe said.

even the most minor infraction of the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic—such as parking next to a fire hydrant, slightly exceeding the speed limit, or unwittingly driving with a burned-out tail-light, to prescribe imprisonment only for serious offenses.

Cavanagh pointed out that the present "no-push" law reads:

"... it is unlawful under any circumstances for any vehicle to push any other vehicle, except in extreme emergency..."

He said the addition of the phrase "for a distance greater than 600 feet" would permit the "neighborly act of one motorist helping another to start his car."

He reminded motorists that during late February late winter snows are likely to cover highways with ice and packed snow making driving hazardous.

"Don't pack away your tire chains too soon," he cautioned. He also suggested that snow tires will be useful later during the muddy conditions of spring.

Klebe warned drivers to be sure and watch carefully for ice patches on highways and streets—patches that may suddenly throw an auto out of control.

"Slow and safe driving will prevent a sudden spin out that could be fatal," he said. He suggested that Lake Countians have their cars re-checked for anti-freeze, a tune-up; battery care, brakes, mufflers, windshield wipers and lights.

Klebe also reminded motorists that seat belts are needed in all weather conditions and particularly during winter.

The world's fastest self-cleaning ovens.

A new gas self-cleaning oven can get the messiest jobs done in half the time it takes the electric kind.

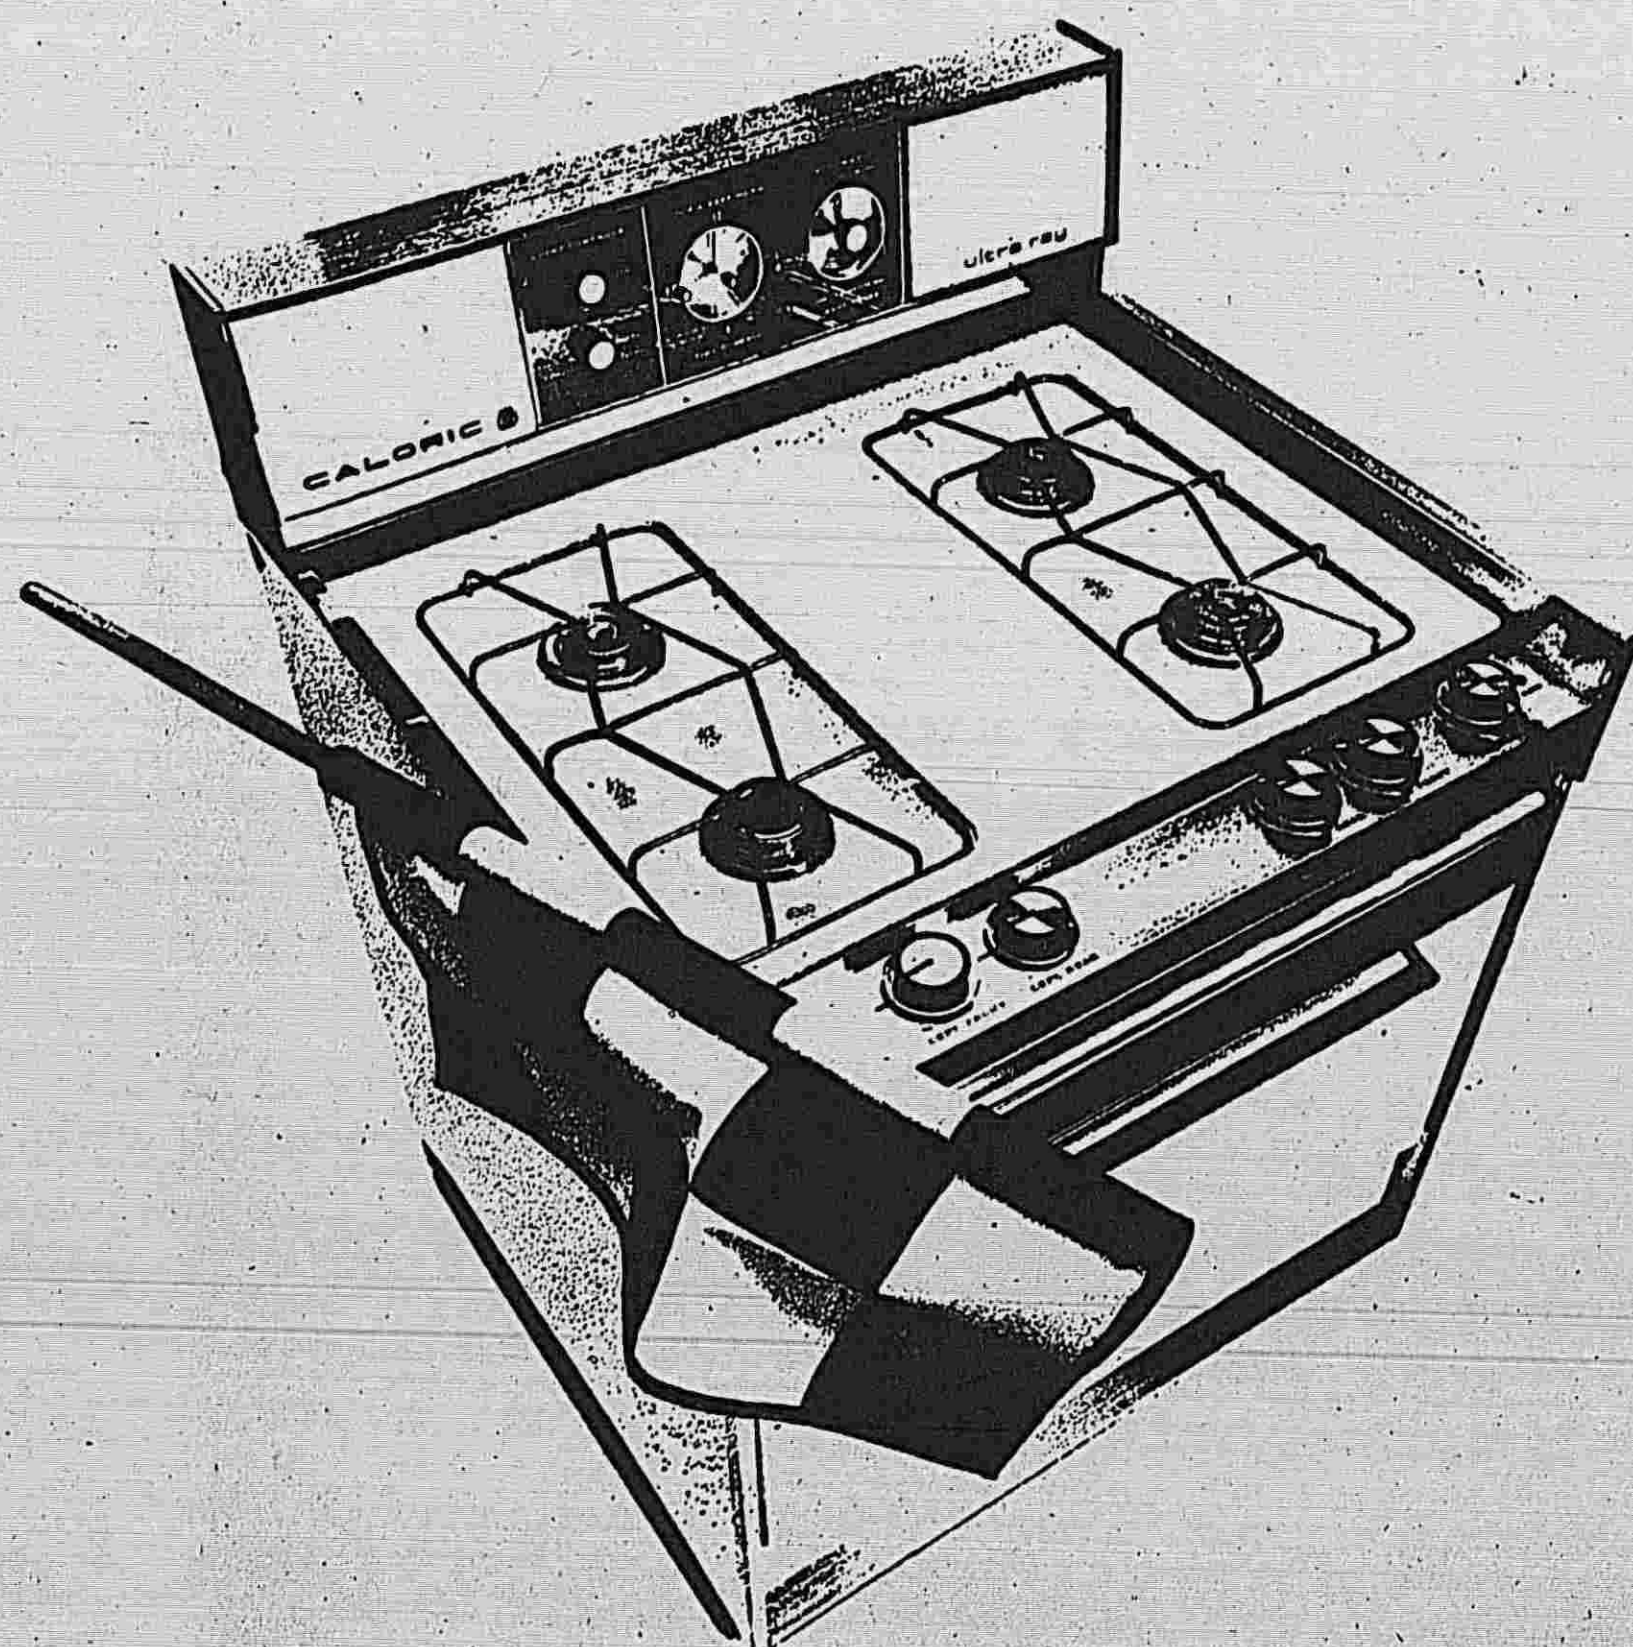

And with gas, you can shorten the cleaning cycle even more if an oven isn't soiled enough to require the full treatment.

But the best part about a new self-cleaning oven is the way it's packaged—inside a new gas range. Because only a gas range gives you precision-controlled top-of-stove cooking. Or gas infrared broiling units—the kind that cook quickly... provide eye-appealing browning, too.

Visit your Northern Illinois Gas office or appliance dealer and see why—when ovens come clean—it's no contest.

Gas wins in half the time.

PM&L Works On 'Planet' Production

On Feb. 14, 15, 20, and 21, Palette, Masque & Lyre, Inc., of Antioch presents Gore Vidal's comedy, "Visit to a Small Planet" at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch.

Dr. A. G. Ramsay of Duck Lake has been hard at work directing this story of outer space. Besides choosing the play, casting the parts, showing the cast how to interpret their lines, and helping to design the stage setting, Dr. Ramsay must also assist his production manager, Allen Biel of Antioch, in coordinating all of the backstage activity.

The first committee to begin work on any production is the construction crew. Mike Ciesielka of Lindenhurst, aided by Hank Apostol of Antioch, Ray Wellman of Libertyville, and Linnea Seron of Antioch, has spent weeks designing the set. He had to create a believable modern living room in a limited space on a very limited budget. Now the group has the task of changing wood, canvas, and paint into walls, doors, and windows.

When the set has been constructed, the decor committee goes into action. Jeanne Apostol of Antioch and her helpers have the task of choosing complementary colors which fit the mood depicted by the director, then reproducing them in walls, chairs, sofas, wall hangings, etc. This is the group who must go knocking on doors searching for that special lamp or knick-knack.

Sue Perry, formerly Bushnell, heads a committee full of head-aches-costumes. She and her crew must find or make clothes which fit each actor, as well as flatter him, make his character believable, complement the set, and reflect the director's ideas.

For "Visit to a Small Planet" this crew must supply Civil War and modern uniforms, an outer space creation, and contemporary fashions for men and women of all ages.

For reservations for PM&L's "Visit to a Small Planet" call 395-1217 or 395-0539.

Mrs. Edna Rathmann has just returned from a week's visit with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pose, of Ringwood, Illinois.

Snowmobiling down the snowy hills at Antioch Lake, and ice skating on its frozen surface, kept some 40 members and friends of the Antioch Evangelical Free Church busily and happily engaged Saturday evening, January 25th. Dairymen To Get $5.06 For December

A minimum order blend price of $5.06 per hundredweight will be paid dairy farmers for Grade A milk delivered during December to plants within Zone 1 of the Chicago regional federal milk market order, Pure Milk Association announced today.

Zone 1 includes the Illinois and Wisconsin territory within 85 miles of Chicago city hall, plus Milwaukee county, Wisconsin, and Winnebago county, Illinois.

December Class I (bottling) milk utilization under the Chicago regional order was 331,470,176 pounds or 58 percent of the 567,495,823 pounds of milk in the pool. In both November and October, Class I utilization on the market was 65 per cent. The December decrease in Class I sales is attributed mainly to the holiday season when schools are closed and an increase of about 4.6 per cent in daily production of milk for the Chicago regional market.

The $5.06 order minimum price applies to milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content and is a blend of the $5.53 per hundredweight minimum order price for Class I milk and $4.30 per hundredweight for Class II (manufacturing) milk.

The producer butterfat differential on December milk was 8.1 cents per hundredweight for each one-tenth of 1 per cent above or below 3.5 percent.

A superpool established by Central Milk Producers Cooperative provides funds for maintaining a standby pool, advertising and promotion, and supplies needed to meet market demand.

Central Milk Producers Cooperative is a group of Wisconsin and Illinois dairy farmer cooperatives, including Pure Milk Association, which supplies most of Chicago's Grade A milk. PMA is marketing agent for the group.

Under the terms of the Chicago regional market order, producers for the market are paid on or before the 18th of the current month for their milk deliveries of the preceding month.

Investigation Eliminated By Proposal

Mandatory elimination of investigation of welfare applicants by substituting their statements that they are needy enough to qualify for public assistance payments has been proposed by the Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois abstained today. This would be an abrupt departure from an orderly procedure in the State of Illinois.

Under the proposal, the Department of Public Aid would have to accept the facts offered by assistance applicants at face value in determining eligibility on welfare rolls. Investigations, which now commonly check relief applicants' finances and living arrangements, would be limited to spot checks in situations where the applicants' cases are incomplete, unclear or incompetent.

In 1963 the Illinois General Assembly passed legislation which Governor Kerner approved, to put the administration of public aid programs under a department instead of under a commission. Harold O. Swank, the Director appointed at that time and who has served since, has done an outstanding job with the help of some very capable assistants. He has received good advice from a Legislative Advisory Committee, chaired by Senator John W. Carroll of Park Ridge. Administration of public aid in Illinois is quite some problem, but the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois commends the job which Director Swank and his assistants have done.

The proposed regulation of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare could be put into effect after January 20, 1969 without any Congressional approval. Under it all 50 states would have until July 1, 1969 to adopt the declaration method of adding persons to the public aid rolls in the six programs financed in part by the Federal government: Old Age Assistance, Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Assistance to the Blind, Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled, Aid to the Aged Blind or Disabled, and Medical Assistance.

Some persons will argue that the welfare rolls will only grow on a temporary basis under the "declaration method," but such slight increase in the rolls will be offset by the fact that the new method will "free" welfare workers of investigative chores and allow them to provide more social services. The Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois staff does not believe that this will be the

School Funds Balance At $116 Million

Michael J. Howlett, state Auditor of Public Accounts, today released a monthly breakdown of cash receipts and disbursements of the General and Common School Fund for the first 18 months of the current biennium.

It showed the balance in the fund was $116,752,495 at the close of business on Dec. 31, 1968, a drop of $83,006,252 from the balance at the opening of the biennium.

Auditor Howlett said he intends to publish a similar breakdown every month from now on to improve public understanding of the fiscal situation of Illinois state government.

"Our situation is still precarious," said Howlett.

"State payrolls were reduced sharply in September, despite a rise of 6,385 in the universities and colleges. In October, the educational institutions payroll swelled another 4,105, but the rest of the state government diminished by 1,356 employees.

"A continuation of the austerity program begun by Gov. Shapiro is a must, but it is obvious the legislature must find new sources of revenue. Any extraordinary demand for cash, such as a big deficiency appropriation for Public Aid, could wipe out the balance of the General Fund."

In 1962 a study of assistance cases in Washington, D. C., reported 59% ineligibility. Following that report the District Welfare Department was ordered to investigate all new requests for aid to families with dependent children and general public assistance and to audit old cases.

The head of the District Department's investigation bureau estimated in the fiscal 1968 hearings that 47% of current aid to families with dependent children cases are ineligible.

The Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois believes, as it always has, that people in need should be taken care of, but that there should be a close check on cases before new persons are added to the rolls. Further, all the mechanics possible should be used to help make such recipients self-sustaining as soon as possible.

Experts estimate that more than 5,000 lives would be saved each year in the United States and that injuries would be reduced by one-third if everyone used auto seat belts.

Fires and lightning strike about two out of every 100 farms in the United States each year.

Powell Warns On Insurance Solicitation

Secretary of State Paul Powell today repeated an earlier warning to drivers whose licenses have been suspended to disregard unsolicited efforts to persuade them to buy financial responsibility insurance.

These efforts are continuing, Powell said, and since the first warning, his office and the Department of Insurance have received many complaints about them.

Last October, Secretary Powell's office and the Departments of Insurance and Public Works

Mrs. Stella E. Polanin of Salem died Tuesday in Burlington Memorial Hospital after an 11 day illness.

A funeral mass will be held at 10 a.m. Friday at Holy Name Church in Wilmet.

and Buildings joined forces to alert persons whose drivers' licenses were suspended or about to be suspended to the attempts of certain insurance operators to sell them unneeded insurance.

Under the program, the Secretary of State's office warned those whose licenses were suspended because of three moving traffic violations within a 12-month period and the Department of Public Works and Buildings warned those whose licenses were about to be suspended because of accident involvement.

In a couple of cases, Powell said, insurance companies were found to be in possession of news releases listing the names of suspended drivers which his office has issued to general circulation news media only.

The warning sent by Secretary Powell's office reads: "Disregard all unsolicited letters regarding your need for financial responsibility insurance. No insurance agent, broker or salesman has been authorized to contact you, personally or by mail. No state employee is authorized to advise you as to the name of any insurance agency or broker."

"Persons having their licenses suspended for 3 offenses against traffic regulations governing the movement of vehicles committed within any 12 month period are not required to file financial responsibility insurance due to that suspension."

"If you receive any unsolicited mail or any unsolicited advice from any state employee, notify the Secretary of State's Office immediately. Any such solicitation of this nature should be looked upon with suspicion."

Disasters Are At All-Time High In U.S.

Approximately 19,100 disaster situations—an all-time high—required services by the American Red Cross in the fiscal year ending last June 30, the organization reported today.

Mid-America chapter, which serves people in Cook, Kane, DuPage, Lake, and Will counties, handled 766 of these disasters, announced chapter disaster chairman, James Pittsford.

In 1967-68 the American Red Cross spent a total of $15,008,086 on its disaster services; more than double the $7,289,700 spent in 1966-67. According to Pittsford, "Mid-America chapter spent $144,050 in 1967-68 to help the victims of fires and other disasters."

The overwhelming majority of disasters, nationwide and in Mid-America chapter as well, were calamities such as residential fires.

"At least 700 of our local disasters were residential fires," Pittsford explained.

The national total also includes hurricanes, tornadoes, floods, explosions, train derailments, airplane crashes, accidents to other commercial vehicles, mine disasters, and structural collapses. One of the most spectacular of the latter was the collapse of the Ohio river bridge between Point Pleasant, West Virginia, and Gallipolis, Ohio, on Dec. 15, 1967, killing 46 persons.

"Locally, there were 27 persons killed in fires or explosions," Pittsford said. "And we had one instance of flooding. Three families had to leave their homes in Harvey, Ill., when local streams overflowed."

The two disasters on which Red Cross spent the most money were the Fairbanks, Alaska, flood of August 1967, and Hurricane Beulah and the floods which followed in South Texas. The Red Cross spent more than $7,000,000 on these two relief operations.

From 1966-67 to 1967-68, the number of families assisted by the organization in long-range recovery from disaster increased 253 per cent, from 9,503 to 33,556.

These 33,556 families were helped with grants for rebuilding, repair and refurbishing of homes; replacement of needed clothing and tools needed to earn a living, and long-term medical and nursing care. Emergency mass care was given to 378,840 persons, including thousands of emergency workers who were fed by the Red Cross.

"Our chapter assisted 1,454 families, a total of 6,238 individuals," Pittsford stated. "Disaster volunteers distributed 20,996 articles of clothing, 2376 blankets and 1777 cots to those who lost their homes and belongings in a fire or other disaster."

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

DRIVING FOR TRAFFIC SAFETY

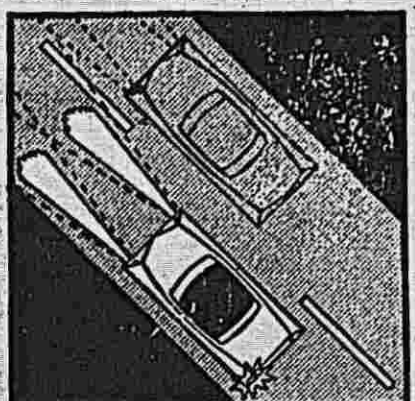

by Paul Powell
Secretary of State

Night driving has many problems of its own. One should learn to recognize and adjust to the different conditions and situations as they occur in nighttime driving.

One of the most important factors in night driving is headlights on your car. You should learn to use them wisely.

No driving after dark should be attempted unless BOTH headlights and signal lights are working properly.

NEVER DRIVE WITH PARKING LIGHTS ON. As well as being illegal in Illinois their smaller size misleads other drivers into thinking your car is farther away than it really is.

Always dim your lights for an approaching car, even if the other driver doesn't dim for you. By switching to low beam, you cut the total glare in half, which lessens the likelihood of your being momentarily blinded. Switch to low beam when overtaking another car. The glare of your lights can be reflected into the other driver's eyes from his rearview mirror.

In overtaking a car you intend to pass, flick your lights quickly between high and low beam as a passing signal to the driver ahead, and always use your turn signal, so other drivers are aware of your intentions.

Ever see a $200 bill?

Just one would buy you a whole year of electric heat.

And you'd probably have money left over. Surprised? You shouldn't be... because electric heat just doesn't cost a small fortune anymore.

Here's why: Commonwealth Edison has cut the cost of electric heat dramatically in the last ten years. That's why today, you should expect to pay less than $200 a year for electric heat in an average six-room home with proper insulation.

So if you still believe the myth that you have to make a lot of money to afford electric heat, forget it.

It's as phony as a $200 bill!

Antioch Sequoits Whip League Leading Scouts

Last Saturday the Sequoits played their finest game of the season, beating Lake Forest 64-61 on their home court.

Commented Coach Andrews, "It was wonderful to see the team function as a team and hustle."

"It's surprising what a lot of hustle and determination will do. Lake Forest was real cocky after beating Grayslake on Friday and taking over first place in the conference. Our kids really did an outstanding job, our defense was real good except for a few minutes in the third quarter and we worked the ball with great confidence. It was a terrific victory for us," added the Sequoits mentor.

Keith Bolton again lead the attack on the boards with 16 rebounds, but he received lots of help from Steve Owens and Rodney Boswell with 8 rebounds each. Owens lead the balanced scoring attack with 17 points.

Dave Camp and Jim "Sparkplug" Weiss played great defense holding "Hot Shot" Anderson to 7 points. He has been averaging over 20 points a game the last five games.

In the first quarter the Sequoits were strong on defense, tough on the board and worked their offense to perfection. With the top flight performance, the Sequoits moved out to a 21-13 lead. Bolton lead the scoring with 4 baskets in the quarter.

As the second quarter moved along the Sequoits continued their excellent defense, but their offense slowed down some as the two teams exchanged baskets. Camp and Weiss in the first half held the high scoring Anderson to only 3 points. The teams left the floor with the Sequoits in control 34 to 28.

During the 3rd quarter the Sequoits lost their defensive edge, with the Scouts being able to get the ball inside to Hodgkinson. As a result he scored 10 points and a Lake Forest lead 50-47 as the third quarter ended.

As the quarter started both teams played cautious basket, but with 4:19 left, the Sequoits trailed by four 58-54. At this point the Sequoits defense stole the ball game, as Lake Forest didn't score for 3:27. During this dry spell, the Sequoits countered with a jump shot by Camp, and four free throws by Owens.

With 1:15 left on the clock Antioch again was ahead 60-58. With 53 seconds Romecovich of Lake Forest was fouled. He cashed in on the first free throw, but on the second, the Sequoits grabbed the ball and controlled until there were 25 seconds left. Owens was fouled, but missed the first free throw.

Rodney Boswell recovered the rebound and passed to Owens, who again was fouled. As the clock showed 23 seconds, Owens sank two free throws for a 62-59 Sequoits lead. Lake Forest put the ball in play, as the clock ticked off ten seconds, Olufs of Lake Forest was fouled. This was Boswell's 5th foul and "Sparkplug" entered the game.

Olufs cut the Sequoits lead to one point as he sank both free throws. Lake Forest pressing all over, the ball came to Weiss who saw the open man in the front court. After the ball was controlled by Carlson, he passed to Camp, who was fouled with 5 seconds left.

Dave stepped up to the line, calm and determined, he sank both shots to ice the victory for Antioch, 64-61.

Added Coach Andrews, "What a team effort, it was terrific, now we can start our momentum for the state tournament—the district at Wauconda. If we play like this, who knows, we could win another Regional."

Round Lake Triumphs Over Sequoits 93-76

The Round Lake Panthers hustled past the Sequoits last Friday 93 to 76. The Sequoits just couldn't handle Mickey McCarthy and Cliff Wallwin as they scored 42 points and 26 points respectively to lead the Panthers to victory.

The Sequoits were plagued with foul trouble as Dave Camp, Steve Owens and Jerry Martin fouled out early in the third quarter. Poor shooting from the field and missing 11 free throws did not help the Sequoits' cause.

The game did bring out some interesting developments. Jim Carlson showed some steady play, Rodney Boswell came off the bench in the second half and worked well on the boards and "Sparkplug" Weiss had a rally that closed the gap to 4 points at one time in the fourth quarter. Keith Bolton continued to look impressive, as he scored 19 points, but more important, he grabbed 22 rebounds. The school records for rebounds is 24 held by three former players.

Coach Andrews had no comment to make after the game except "We've got to get better—we can't get any worse than we were against Round Lake."

Sports Writer Will Address Carmel Group

James Enright, 32-year veteran sports writer for Chicago's American and a regular on the major league baseball beat with the Cubs or White Sox since 1944, will be the featured speaker at the regular meeting of the Carmel Fathers Club Monday evening, Feb. 3rd, at Carmel High School Cafeteria at 8:00 p.m.

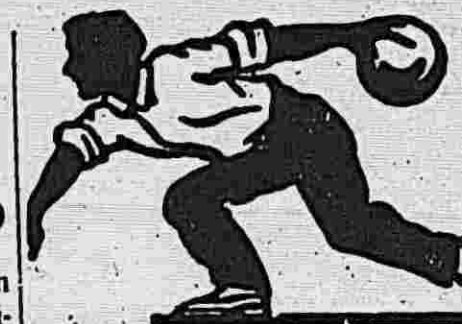

As a basketball official, who officiated at all levels of the game, Enright twice was invited to conduct overseas clinics for the United States Air Force. Last year he was a member of a four man corps which conducted clinics in both London and Wiesbaden, Germany.

Although he officiated at both the prep and professional plateaus, Enright is a former regular in three conferences: the Big Ten, the Big Eight, and the Missouri Valley. During the 1967-68 season the Chicago scribe was national president of the United States Basketball Writers Association.

Enright was the official scorer for two All-Star baseball games, 1950 in Comiskey park and 1962 in Wrigley field. He has one first which probably will remain unmatched in all pre-season baseball forecasting.

In 1961 he picked the Cincinnati Reds to finish last in the National league, and they won the pennant. In his defense, Enright says "It wasn't until the world series against the Yankees that year that the Reds got around to looking like last placers."

It will be an evening of enjoyment and refreshments will be served Carmel style.

Sequoits Sophs On Streak

The Sequoits Sophs extended their victory string to six in a row by beating Round Lake's Sophs 66-58 on the opponent's floor Friday night and returning home Saturday night to decisively hand the Lake Forest Sophs their first conference defeat 61-41.

The two victories give the Sophs an 8-2 conference record and a 10-7 season's record thus far.

Friday night's game with Round Lake was replete with fouls and mechanical errors by both teams, but on Saturday night the Sequoits played an excellent game, well executed both offensively and defensively.

The Sophs rode to both victories via the strong rebounding of Tom Martin, Jon Story, and Steve Bente and the high scoring of Marty Romaine who had 23 points against Round Lake and 28 points against Lake Forest.

Questions About The Draft

Q.: When I transferred from junior college to our State University some credits I had earned were not accepted. That meant I had less than the required percentage of course completion to be eligible for a II-S student deferment. What might my status be now?

A.: The local board may, at its discretion, grant a II-2 deferment to you for the first year after your transfer, subject to re-evaluation at the end of that year, based on the work accomplished at the new institution.

Q.: As a widow with grown children, I would like to give some time to the Selective Service System. I understand the law was recently changed and women can now serve as members on a local board. Is this true and, if so, what are the qualifications?

A.: The current selective service law does not restrict membership on a local board to only males. The qualifications are as follows: Must be a citizen of the United States; a resident of the county in which the local board has jurisdiction and who shall also, if at all practicable, be a resident of the area in which the local board has jurisdiction; the individual must be at least 30 years of age; and cannot be a member of the Armed Forces or any reserve component thereof.

Q.: I am a junior in high school, age 17½. My doctor says I will not be drafted because I have high blood pressure. Will I still have to register and take a physical examination?

4-H Honors Top Growers In Illinois

Top Illinois 4-H Club corn and soybean producers will be honored at a recognition banquet in Urbana on Saturday, Feb. 1. The 4-Hers are all county award winners in the annual 4-H X-Tra Yield activity.

The boys with the top corn and soybean yields in each of five districts, in the state will be presented an attractive wrist watch, and large trophies will go to the highest yield entries in the state on each of the two crops.

In addition to the awards based on yield, ten scholarships of $150 each will be given to the boys enrolled in the activity who compile the best over-all 4-H Club records. These awards will also be made by district.

Prior to the awards banquet the 4-Hers will tour the University of Illinois campus and Turner Hall, headquarters of the Agriculture College Agronomy Department.

In the 4-H X-Tra Yield activity, the 4-H members raise five acres of corn or soybeans, keep accurate records on their work, and try for highest possible yields. Winning corn yields are expected to top 200 bushels per acre and soybean yields in the neighborhood of 60 bushels per acre are expected.
